Sui juris;
"of one's own right"

Liberty and Justice for All

Affirmed;
Declaration of Independence
July 4, 1776

Si quaeris peninsulam amoenam, circumspice
If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you

July 25, 2024

Greetings to Missouri, a Free and Independent nation=state:

Let it be known that the sovereign people of the land known as Michigan, described by metes and bounds, met in assembly on Saturday the twenty-eighth day of August in the year two thousand and ten A.D., and brought forth in convention in the Village of Perry, Michigan, our Covenant for a free and independent nation=state that creates a perpetual public trust, and documents of authority for the existence of general jural assemblies, and in recognition of the right of members of the union, consistent with the original foundational documents, which include the Articles of Confederation and Constitution for the united States of America, to reinhabit the offices of de jure national government on an equal footing with the original States, in order to establish Justice, promote the welfare, and secure the blessings of freedom to ourselves and our posterity, did ordain and establish on Michigan the Covenant-form of Michigan Self-governance and mutually agreed with each other to form ourselves into a free and independent nation=state, having ratified by-laws, and filled Interim-Government seats in the public trust and Covenant republican form of self-governance, all of which was done by the ninth day of March in the year two thousand and thirteen, Michigan General Jural Assembly and Michigan, a Free and Independent nation=state stands lawfully in harmony and peace un-rebutted to date. Michigan General Jural Assembly and Michigan, a Free and Independent nation=state do hereby recognize Missouri, a Free and Independent nation=state, and Missouri General Jural Assembly as an equal member of the union and wish to exist in common cause and harmony for trade, freedom, and the common defense of the confederated states of perpetual union, and we wish to work in harmony for the benefit of all the states so united and enjoy the natural rights of all People granted by the Creator All Mighty.

Michigan General Jural Assembly and Michigan, a Free and Independent nation=state

Moderator Gary Smith

Chief Trustee Linda Koons

Michigan General Jural Assembly
C770 First Street, 800, Post-office box number 1299, Muskegon, Michigan